Galveston County United Board of Health NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING Animal Services Policy

Notice is hereby given that the United Board of Health of the Galveston County Health District will conduct a public hearing on June 27, 2007 at 6:00 p.m. in the Board Room of the Galveston County Health District located at 1207 Oak Street, La Marque, Texas for the purpose of the first reading and consideration of the adoption of amendments to the Animal Services Policy of the Galveston County Health District. Revisions to the policy include new requirements on the number of animals that can be kept, dangerous dog requirements, adoption and sterilization requirements, the keeping of dangerous wild animals and new kennel permit requirements. In addition, the policy aligns with state requirements and specifically proposed local requirements applicable to Galveston County and cities' jurisdictions. To view the proposed Health District policy, please see the Galveston County Health District website at www.gchd.org. You may submit written or verbal comments to Ronnie Schultz, Director of Environmental Health Services, P.O. Box 939, La Marque, Texas 77568, rschultz@gchd.org, (409) 938-2319.
