

Ms. Dorothy Goodman

Since retiring from the New York City Transit Authority, Ms Goodman enjoys many activities. In addition to being a self-employed seamstress, she is a receptionist for the Jesse Tree Foundation. Other activities include volunteer work as a youth leader and counselor, and having an Internet Prayer Ministry. During her professional career, Ms Goodman had the distinction of being secretary to both Joe Namath and Frank Gifford.

Education

- College of the Mainland 5 certificates in computer technology

Board Memberships

- Governing Board of the Galveston County Health District
- Connect Transportation of Texas City
- Independent Living of Texas City

Awards/Certificates

- Outstanding receptionist - Jesse Tree Foundation
- Ecumenical Prayer Hall of Fame inductee
- A certificate of appreciation from Mayor Charles Doyle