

Dr. Arceneaux joined UTMB's Department of Family Medicine in July 2010. She attended medical school in Galveston at UTMB. Dr. Arceneaux completed her residency training in the Department of Family Medicine at UTMB. She continued her education by earning her Masters of Public Health and completing the General Preventive Medicine residency from UTMB's Department of Preventive Medicine and Community Health.

Dr. Arceneaux is board certified in Family Practice by the American Board of Family Practice. Dr. Arceneaux's interests are in Family Medicine, medical student education, primary prevention and community health.